Ex Parte Quayle

This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters: applicants did not delete non-elected invention from the claims. Applicants have amended the claims on 11/17/2008 to overcome Ex parte Quayle Action (09/15/2008), but said amendment would not overcome the formal matter raised in Ex parte Quayle Action.

Note that Applicants elected the prosecution of Group III (R^2 is pyrido[3,2-b]thiazine ring) in the reply filed on 03/18/2008. Applicant's amendment to claim 1 limit the definition of X^2 to N, the definition of Y^1 to 2 atom linker that is independently selected from CR^4 and the definition of Y^2 to a 4 atom linker group having S bonded to X^4 and NHCO bonded via N to X^3 in which the other atom is CR^4R^5 , but this amendment would not solve the problem (limit the invention to Group III). The definition of R^2 as "containing up to four heteroatoms...ring (a) is substituted or unsubstituted pyridine and ring (b) is substituted or unsubstituted non-aromatic" and the definition of Y^2 would raise second paragraph issues and also does not limit the invention of Group III to R^2 = pyrido[3,2-b]thiazine ring. The definition of R^2 as set forth in the restriction requirement points out to the exact chemical structure of the pyrido[3,2-b]thiazine ring at page 18 of the specification. Applicants are simply trying to rewrite the definition of Group III and R^2 instead of replacing the structure of R^2 to pyrido[3,2-b]thiazine ring from the specification. By doing this, applicants did not limit the definition of R^2 to pyrido[3,2-b]thiazine or delete non-elected subject matter from the claims. It is recommended that applicants review the issues raised in related case 11/814,610 that has the same problem.

Applicants can overcome this objection by replacing the definition of R² with the following chemical structure disclosed at page 18 of the specification.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
